

A group of RWA students puts on a Christmas Program at the Play House for their family and friends.

Mackenzie Branham ventures outside during one of the snow days and pauses for a picture.

Sidney Edenfield scopes out the snow around his yard, seeing if it suitable enough for sledding with his dog and brother.

After bundling up, Landon Caulder heads outside and makes a snow angel in his yard.

Anna Cook and Joseph Goldin walk back to the house to warm up after sledding in the snow.

Lauren Elder shows her creative ability by building a family of snowmen.

Cameron Medlin holds onto her sled tightly as she flies down the hill.

Cameron, Jaycie, and Cassidy huddle for a picture before heading back to play in the snow.