

GRANDPARENTS DAY IS...

A Special Time of Show & Tell

● Mrs. Patsy Black, a former RWA teacher and now a volunteer reading mentor, shares a snack with Emily Raley, one of her two grandchildren attending RWA. ● Wesley Bellomy checks out the snack selection on his grandmother's plate. ● Mrs. Barbara Martin looks on as granddaughter Ainsley fills out some fun paperwork about her grandmother as assigned by her 2nd grade teacher, Mrs. Schwartz. ● Grandparents, kindergarten students, and teachers, gather in the Art Room for some light refreshments and social time. ● Second grader Emma Castles works diligently on her assignment. ● Third grader Ally Robinson is happy to have her grandparents visit. ● Serenity Shirle delights in sharing her special craft project with her grandmother. ● Joey Sanchez's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Klaus, like several others in attendance, had to split their time in order to visit with more than one grandchild.
