Time-out huddle

Jessica Douglas drives past a Calhoun defender toward the basket. Jessica's ball handling skills and experience on the court made her a valuable member of the team.

Ryane Railey, 8th

Although a newcomer to RWA and a first year player, Sarah Mazurkewicz fit in well with the team and had great ball handling skills, too..

Marion Walker Coleman proves that "big things come in small packages." Her mental and physical skills on the court, coupled with her aggressive play, made her a tough point guard and team leader.

Cassidy Branham, 8th

The Middle School Girls' team was certainly "a sight to see." Their team unity and heart was always displayed on game days and made them a force to be reckoned with in region play as captured the region championship title once again.

What was your biggest personal accomplishment this season?

"Being a part of a team that stayed undefeated this year in middle school and beat a JV team."
