

FIELD DAY = Extreme Fun in the Sun

Zack Taylor dumps the water from his bowl into his team's bucket, trying to help his team win this game. The water had to be carried on the player's head while running to the bucket.

● Brooke Pauley, Kaitlyn Thoma, and Meredith Melton tug hard to help their team win. ● Mrs. Taylor's K-5 kids joyfully soak themselves to win the relay. ● Emy Russell trusts her teammate to carefully pour the water into the jar. ● Keeping "a-head" of the game, these girls hustle to the finish line. ● PTO volunteers feed lunch to the hungry group. ● Mrs. Bell's first graders watch the tug-o-war competitions with great interest. ● Mrs. Atkerson's second graders celebrate their tug-o-war victory. ● Even teachers and volunteer helpers got in on the tug-o-war fun. ● Cameron Medlin is happy for the hot dog lunch break. ● Aryan Patel and Christy Barber chat while waiting their turn to participate.
