- Sponsored by the Aerie staff as a fundraising event, the Alumni Games Day was a "hit" even though attendance was slim.
- Frances plays tight defense on Ashley as she scans the court for an open teammate.
- Kimberly, having played on the inaugural team in 1995, showed she hadn't lost her touch on the court!
- Kasey's proved her serve is still as powerful as it always was.
- "Air" Coleman, shows that he's just as agile and athletic as his students.
- Husband and Ref Eric Johnson "takes notes" as wife Lena takes the ball down the court.
- 2002 grad Justin Dixon attempts a shot over MacKenzie's defense.
- Rachel Matthews hustles down court to get off a shot before Lena can defend her.
- These volley girls celebrate their 3-2 match victory.
- Callie and the Matthews sisters were the only ones to play both volleyball and basketball that day.
