

People

Richard Winn is more than bricks and mortar, steel, and cement. It is so much more than simply a building. It is a family. Our family is composed of people of all sorts. While many would argue that we are not very diverse, that argument would hardly hold water. "R-dub" contains relatives, "kinfolk," cousins, brothers, and sisters. But we are not the same. We each have different ideas, experiences, talents, and memories. We cherish different things. Some of us are scared of spiders, while others are afraid of nothing at all. From our differences, we grow. We change. Richard Winn has been here for 46 years, and while some things stay the same, many do not. There are new faces, and some old. But despite the tumultuous world around, Richard Winn remains. The family stays intact. Together we have learned, we have worked hard, we have shared in our successes and our failures. We have cried. We have laughed. We are one. Richard Winn Academy, Administration, Faculty, Staff, Alumni, and Students. Just getting it done...
