

Emily Locklair and MacKenzie Branham are ready to pass the oncoming serve.

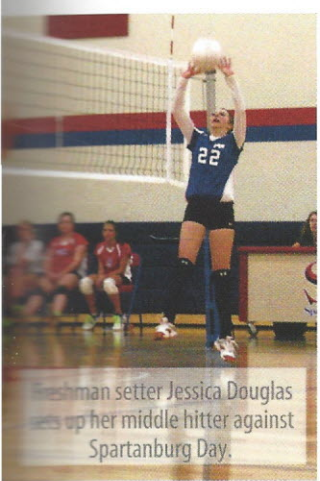

Alex Maass and Sarah Grier Thompson set up a double block against Wardlaw's middle hitter.

How was it different switching from JV to varsity this year?

"It was a definite change in the level of competition and learning all of the transitions, but it is such an amazing sport and an incredible experience for anyone."

-Sophomore Sarah Grier Thompson

Freshman setter Jessica Douglas sets up her middle hitter against Spartanburg Day.

Serving just comes naturally to senior Emily Locklair, who has spent years perfecting her game.

AAAAA AA!
The Lady Eagles perform their classic "A" cheer. This cheer has become something of a tradition and is done after home victories.

The Lady Eagles had a very successful and riveting season. Boasting a senior-laden roster of nine seniors, this year's team had much experience as well as leadership. The underclassmen bought into the enthusiasm and reckless abandon that the seniors brought to the table. Starting the season undefeated as participants in a pre-season jamboree, the Lady Eagles were chomping at the bit to start the real season. By the end, they sported a 15-6 record and a run in the SCISA AA State Tournament. It was certainly a memorable season, and despite losing nine seniors, the coming years should be promising ones for the young and talented underclassmen.

scoreboard:

RW: Opponent:

6	0	Newberry Jamboree	W
3	0	Wardlaw	W
0	3	Wardlaw	L
3	0	W.W. King	W
3	0	Laurens	W
3	0	Newberry	W
0	3	Spartanburg Christian	L
1	3	Oakbrook	L
3	2	Spartanburg Day	W
3	0	Laurens	W
3	0	Hendersonville Christian	W
3	0	Greenwood Christian	W
3	0	Oakbrook	W
0	3	Spartanburg Christian	L
3	2	Spartanburg Day	W
3	0	Hendersonville Christian	W
3	0	Greenwood Christian	W

State Tournament

2	0	Thomas Heyward	W
0	2	Holly Hill	L
2	0	The King's	W
0	2	First Baptist	L

