

Friday night lights shine down on a cool, grassy field. Chants from cheerleaders, whistles from the referees, shouts amongst the crowd in blue and gold. It's football season at Richard Winn. From first kick off until the last play of the game, this team of young, talented gentlemen put forth a great work effort each time they stepped on field. Led by six seniors, the Eagle's varsity team went into many games this season with a great chance to walk away as the victor.

Austin Knox prepares to throw downfield in order to gain positive yards.

Sidney Edenfield runs a pass route to try and shake the defender.

“

What was the biggest highlight of the season?

The biggest highlight was our 25-20 victory over R.E. Lee. It was our first win since 2009, and we ran the ball all over them. We had a big stand defensively on the goal line at the beginning of the game which was huge!

After receiving the punt, Corey Davis begins to sprint downfield with Colie Rowe blocking.

Jason Branham prepares himself before the next play.

Seniors, Colie Rowe and Dalton Haney, converse with one another before the opening kickoff.
