

Homecoming is an important part of the school year because it gives us a chance to express ourselves and let our personalities show. It's nice to get a week away from uniforms and a chance to show our school spirit.

Pauline Craig, 11th Grade

