

Do You Hear What I Hear?

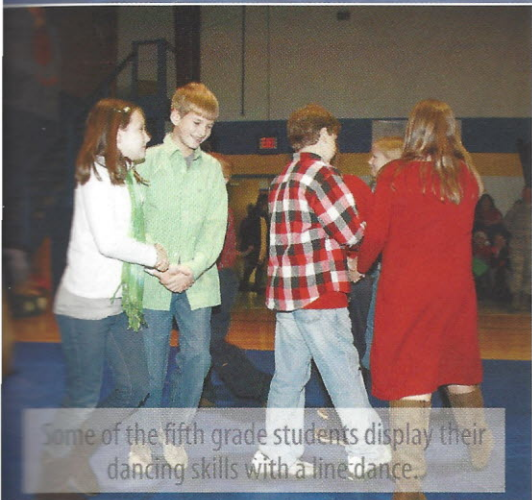

A variety of Richard Winn students, both young and old, spread Christmas cheer and the true reason for the season by participating in this year's music and drama production of "Christmas Is a Feeling."

Nic Mills recites his lines for the play while Anna Grey Walters, Tyler Lewis, and Alex Maass listen carefully to his message of Christmas spirit.

Some of the lower school students, dressed for the holiday occasion, sing well-known Christmas songs with great enthusiasm.

Some of the fifth grade students display their dancing skills with a line dance.

Wise men Berry Bonds and Wyatt Raley, joined by fellow singers, showcase a Christmas carol with practiced choreography.
