

1. Tori Douglas awaits the tell-tale tap from Senior sponsor, Mrs. Gibbons, to begin her entrance into the sanctuary.
2. Carol Ann Elliott can hardly contain her excitement before the Baccalaureate service.
3. After the ceremony, the seniors grin and smile, now one step closer to the big day.
4. Many hymns were sung during the service, including the traditional "On Eagles Wings" which is the last song sung before the seniors exit.
5. Alex Douglas can't keep from smiling and MacKenzie Branham makes a last minute cap adjustment before Baccalaureate begins.
6. The Class of 2012, all together and decked out in the most fashionable outfits of the season- graduation robes.
7. Best friends Tara Peak and Emily Locklair help each other with the donning of their caps.
8. Dr. Coleman and Mrs. Bellomy, as well as friends and family, share in this monumental moment for the members of the Class of 2012.
