

Bound for [adventure]

Richard Winn students excel in and out of the classroom. Students at RWA have countless opportunities to go on small adventures and learn from new experiences. These fun-filled trips are enjoyed by students of all ages. During this school year, students went on trips across the state and beyond.

Something's Fishy.. Rees Castles, Taylor Spires, Ainsley Martin, and Emma Castles hold their noses and pose "underwater" in the aquarium at the Riverbanks Zoo. The fourth grade enjoyed a sunny field trip to the zoo on a warm spring day.

Field Trips
[032]

Back in Time. While on a trip to the New South Museum in Charlotte, Codi Revis and Vicky Durham sit down to play checkers in one of the interactive exhibits. The majority of the upper school enjoyed a trip back in the history of the south on this field trip.

Solemn Thanks. Ryan Stillwell quietly observes the Vietnam War memorial and pays respect to those who gave their lives. Visiting this memorial was a humbling experience for the students.

Relaxin' in the Hay. During a hayride around the farm, Kit Nichols lounges in the shade of his haylounge with his classmate. The first and second classes enjoyed an educational day on the Matthews' farm.
