

Say Cheese! Samantha Wilkes and Autumn Keys, waiting patiently for the program to begin, smile for the camera. They were clearly excited about the upcoming awards and the ending of their third grade year.

The Moment We Have All Been Waiting For. Dr. Coleman, in her most genuine tone, welcomes the audience and praises all of the students and teachers for their hard work. Dr. Coleman shares her gratitude with all for so many academic accomplishments.

Standing Tall and Proud! The first grade lines up in recognition of their achievements and proudly accept the applause for their achievements. This group of first graders had a successful year under the leadership of Mrs. Joye Schwartz, Ms. Danielle Owens, and Mrs. Kerry Matthews.

Let's Go! Lily Hawkins and Hughes await the announcement of award recipients. These two graders were eager to "get the road."

1. Ainsley Martin, Emma Castles, and Taylor Spires lean in close to take a picture while proudly displaying their academic achievement medals. 2. After more than 30 years of her teaching career, Mrs. Grant awaits her final present fifth grade students with well-deserved awards and recognitions. 3. The facial expressions of these sixth graders sum up their idea of a lengthy award ceremony. However, the students were more attentive when it was their turn to be recognized. 4. Fourth graders Austin Robinson and Rayne Williams stand in recognition of an award.
