

Running. Will Carvalho, fast with his legs, runs the ball down the field. Although Will was a rookie, his skills were immediately advanced for someone

Let's Get Serious. Coach Paul Brigman tells players, Bryan O'Connor and Parker Amick the next play. The Eagles, under Coach Brigman's leadership, finished the season with a 4-2 record.

Tuned In. Some of the boys tune in to hear some important talk from Coach Dean on the sidelines. Their practice time was well spent in getting prepared for game situations and paid off.

Take It to the House. Mitchell Gibbons, number seven, moves the ball towards the end zone. Mitchell, as the quarterback and kicker, had many TD runs and long kicks.

Bound and [determined]

Opponent:	Score:
W.W. King	48-6 W
Northside Academy	22-0 W
Greenwood Christian	14-20 L
Cambridge Academy	24-0 W
Wardlaw	12-22 L
Northside Academy	46-0 W

The middle school football team showed wonderful improvement all throughout the season. Each and every player played a different role, and many stepped up, successfully, taking on the role of a leader on and off the field. The coaches were always there to encourage and teach the fundamentals and make any necessary adjustments during games.

Sitting: Will Carvalho, Peyton Gilbert, Ryan Stillwell, and Noah Edwards. Standing: Dru Talbert, Ethan McManus, Logan Byrum, Todd Johnson, Kyle Amick, and Bryan O'Connor. Standing: Head Coach Paul Brigman, Bryant Amick, Tyler Douglas, Caleb Ellisor, Mitchell Gibbons, Hunter Hartley, Parker Amick, and Hunter Dean.

1. Bryant Carvalho, number six, is determined, and dodges the defense of King Academy. 2. Before their game against Northside, the boys huddle and decide on the game plan. 3. Our Eagles are down and ready to play some defense while staying on their toes.

