

1. A few of the Lady Eagle reserves sit on the sidelines while the starting play is called out before the game. 2. Freshman Rebecca Robertson passes the ball. Playing the position of libero, Marion Coleman gets in position to pass the ball. 4. Carson Justice, a veteran junior, "ups" as she goes up for the serve. Freshman Jaycie Johnson gets ready to make a play on the ball. 6. Carson Branham, a sophomore, passes the ball to the team's setter. 7. Freshman Annie Mattox follows through as she serves the ball. 8. Jordan Parris watches closely as the ball comes through with her back swing to make contact on the serve.

Save It. Alexa Karoly saves the ball in a game against Laurens Academy. Alexa, a junior, moved up from the undefeated 2011 JV team to play her first year on varsity.

Can You Dig It? Alyssa Atkerson dives for the save. Alyssa, an eighth grader, proved to be a vital player after moving up to the varsity squad mid-season.

Let It Ride. Emily Brigman, a 10th grader, tosses the ball and sets up to put the ball in play. Emily, one of the team's middle hitters, served many impressive aces this season.

Set Her Up. Jordan Grier Thompson sets up her teammate for the serve. Sarah Grier was an experienced varsity player and a leader on the team.

