

1. Flyer Meg Cathcart puts all her trust cheerleaders on the ground who pre catch her. 2. The varsity cheerleaders p the sidelines during the second home g the season. 3. Freshmen Chrissy Ca supported by her stunt group in an ex while performing a chant during a time Co-Captain Anna Grey Walters show after her name is called during a pep. While praying a prayer prior to kickoff of home game, the varsity cheerleaders e and prepare for the season. 6. Freshme Bostrom and Chloe Dawkins excitedly s a sideline dance, one of three th cheerleaders used every home game. 7 of the Eagle cheerleaders have a phot before the game against Andrew J begins. 8. Sporting orange bows in h Team Lily, the cheerleaders support mo just the Eagles! 9. Blake Little and Bostrom strike a pose during a halftime

Born to Fly. During a halftime performance, the squad displays their stunting capabilities. Each week the cheerleaders put together a different halftime routine that showcased their skills.

Let's Get Loud. Meg Cathcart shouts encouragement from the sidelines. As a first time cheerleader, Meg's enthusiasm grew with each game.

Go, Eagles, Go! The varsity cheerleaders chant to the football team while they rush towards the goal line. These intense moments required total participation and often made the squad go hoarse.

Hands Up. Senior Craig concentrates on the next move of the dance. After the home game, the cheerleaders eagerly awaited the time for a sideline dance to play during time-outs.

