

Logan Gibbons stares down the basket given an unguarded attempt. 2. Cameron Hensley plants his feet before firing the ball. 3. Reid Johnson lunges for the basket in hopes to score for his team. 4. John Coleman pulls up from the perimeter as Logan Gibbons waits for a rebound if needed. 5. After walking the ball down the court, the Whitmire Wolverines hit a block one they were matched up with on the Eagles' defense. 6. After a tough foul call, Reid Johnson pulls up from inside the paint. 7. Corey Davis takes after receiving a pass in the key. 8. Rob O'Connor finds himself under the goal before he starts his

Open. Patrick Pope has the ball in the corner with a wide open look, he takes a shot for three points. He was one of RW's main weapons, especially from outside the 3-point line.

Step into the Light. Mitchell Gibbons leads the team out of the locker room before a home game. As the youngest rookie on the varsity team, Mitchell often came off the bench to knock down 3-point attempts.

Good Timing. Stopping short of the paint, Cameron Cooper releases a floater towards the basket before the defender could swat at it. Cameron went on to earn All Region post-season honors.

Consistency. Logan Gibbons lines up a shot at the charity stripe. All season long he had great consistency in knocking down free throws.

