

Get you

Ally Robinson (fifth grade) has been riding dressage since the age of six. Over the past 4 years, Ally has been recognized as the 2010 & 2011 SCDCTA Intro level Junior Champion, 2012 3rd in the training Junior Level as well as the 2012 Reserve Champion in the Junior Dressage Seat Equitation Division. 2013 has been a great year for her and her new horse, Ranja (pictured), as they have qualified for the Regional Championships this fall in Georgia.

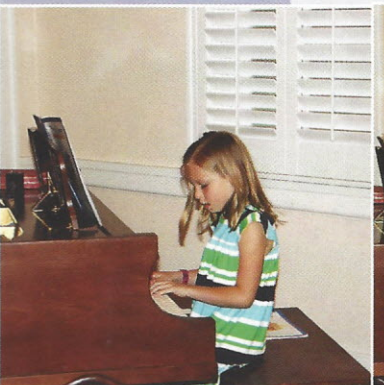

These fourth grade girls are a member of Girl Scout Troop 1040. Rayne Williams, Kaeleigh D. McKenzie Wilson, Ainsley Martin, Sam Boulware, Taylor Spires, Mary Stegal-Smith, Emma Castles enjoy each other's company in the Winnsboro troop.

Samantha Wilkes (third grade) rides horses with Mrs. D. Betty's riding class. Samantha attends riding camps, takes regular lessons, and has participated in local Christmas parades. Her horse is named Lady.

Miller Stuck (first grade) and brother Carson Stuck (fifth grade) have joined their father, David Stuck, and grandfather, Duane Stuck, in bee keeping. They started their four new hives over Spring Break. Their goal is to be producing honey by 2014.

Anna Grace Martin (second grade) and sister Ainsley Martin (fourth grade) have both been playing the piano for three years. They take lessons from Callie Timms. Anna Grace and Ainsley are pictured here

Ella Grace Harrison (first grade) partakes in many after school activities. She takes gymnastics at the Little Gym, participates in her church choir, is a Daisy Girl Scout, and enjoys being outside, riding her bike, roller skating, or just spending time with family.