The second graders' grandparents observe classroom activities during Grandparents' Day. Each second grader helps fill in dirt around the tree they planted on Arbor Day. Michael, Morgan, Lawson, and Maggie are eager to discover the hidden picture on their math sheet. The second grade makes their way back to the classroom after lunch.

Better late than....

...missing the party all together.

...to show up and not be ready.

Attitude is Everything.

The second graders strike a pose during music class on Blast from the Past Day. This class had an extraordinary amount of school spirit and enthusiasm.
