

Recess Days. Marshall and Zack pose for a picture while playing football at recess. Recess is a much anticipated time for lower school students to release their built up energy from sitting in classroom all day.

Blues Bros. Marshall and his brother, Mason, play the piano in the W Factor (talent show). The Gibbons' boys are all very musically talented.

Pitch Perfect. Hailey, Dru, and Mason focus intently on their music. Under the direction of Mrs. Howell, the fourth grade class learned to play pre-recorders and read basic music notes using the Pre-recorder karate curriculum.

Cluck Cluck. During a pep rally, Emma imitates a chicken. Participants of this game were instructed to avoid eggs that had been unknowingly removed from the floor once they had been blindfolded.

Merry Christmas. Before Christmas music program, Eagle Chorus members gather for picture with music teacher Mrs. Howell. As you can see, several students participated in the program on Mondays and Tuesdays.

Wobble with It. The fourth grade girls gather together to perform the Wobble at the Valentine's Dance. In addition to dancing, the girls enjoyed posing for pictures with props and costumes in front of the green screen.

Look at This! On Grandparents' Day, Ben shares his work with his grandmother. This day has become an exciting tradition for the students to spend with their loved ones.

Thumbs Up! Kaeleigh and Gavin excitedly await the start of the pep rally. It is always a great honor for lower school students to be included in upper school traditions.

Priorities. Zack completes his class assignment in hopes to get a head start on his homework. Zack understood the importance of priorities if he wanted to participate in after school sport activities.

Go Deep. Preparing a long pass, Zack releases the football to a teammate. Fourth grade boys never miss an opportunity to play a game of football, whether kickball, football, or soccer.
