

[Fifth Grade]

Sports... Patriots' Day...Changing Classes...Community Service Projects...Medieval Times...Ripley's Aquarium...Raising the Flag...Last Field Day...

1. The fifth graders take a moment from their classwork to snap a group photo on Fake an Injury Day. 2. Hudson and Kaitlyn have a great time doing the Virginia Reel during the annual RWA Square Dance. 3. Mrs. Wilkins teaches a few of the fifth graders how to put the flag up in the mornings and take it down in the afternoon. 4. Riley and Mitchell Gibbons smile for the camera during the 2013 Richard Winn Academy Valentine's Day Dance.

It's always darkest before...

Meredyth

Hudson

...Carolina powers Clemson!!

...bed time.

Hands Up. Throwing their hands in the air and raising their voices to ear-splitting levels, the fifth grade students try to attract attention so they can be picked for the pep rally game. The ever spirited fifth grade class was notorious for being unbelievably loud during pep rallies and often won the spirit stick for their enthusiasm.