

[Sixth Grade]

Lockers... Changing classes... Participating in sports... Taking part in the animal rescue project... Coach Halt's Carolina talks... Going to "Break" instead of recess

1. Noah works diligently and quietly on his classwork. 2. Hannah S, Gracie, and Caleigh get fueled up for their volleyball match later that day. 3. Despite the camera in his face, Bradden tries to focus on his school work. 4. Dressed in Friday attire, Caleigh finishes her class work.

Never underestimate the power of...

Will

Rahi

...hurricanes! " education, discipline, and the love of God! "

Peace, Love, and Hippyiness. These sixth grade students are more than happy to pose for a quick picture on Decade Day during spirit week. Like most years in the lower school, the sixth grade class dressed up every day and enjoyed spirit week the most compared to any other week during the entire school year.