

Pure Boredom. The junior class listens quietly during the handbook assembly on the first day of school. These types of assemblies were not always exciting, but the students did enjoy the chances to be out of the normal classroom setting.

Rip It. Patrick works hard to break the frozen t-shirt open. This was one of the many fun and challenging lunch games during Spirit Week.

"Tatted Up." Anna gives Brian a "tattoo" at the annual Square Dance. The junior class members sponsored the event, and helped make the Square Dance a fun time for all ages.

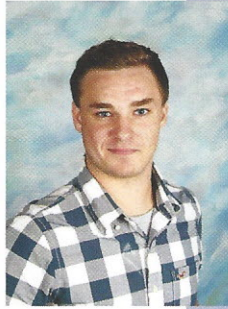

Rock 'n Roll. Levi enjoys playing his guitar during Fine Arts Performance class each day. Levi also used his musical talents by playing in a local band with some friends.

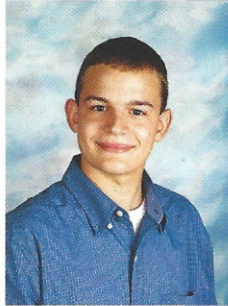

La Fiesta! The Spanish 3 class with Ms. Hernandez during birthday celebration. They worked hard at surprising her to make her welcome and a part of the Winn family.

Helping Hands. Joseph, Mason, and Patrick help load boxes to take to the local food pantry. The Sr. Beta Club sponsored a school-wide food drive to help local citizens in need.

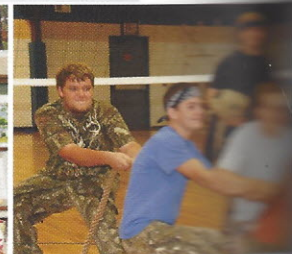

Drummin' Fun. Josh shows off his mad drum skills during Fine Arts Performance class. His musical talent and sense of humor served as a great source of entertainment for his classmates.

Cheers. Jason, Sarah Grier, and Alexa toast to the successful reopening of the Early Bird Cafe. The profits of the cafe were equally divided among the students attending the Europe field trip.

Spreading Smiles. Carson waits for class to start in the library on Blast from the Past Day. She always has a smile and does a great job of spreading joy throughout the school.

Flex Your Muscles. Will Austin and Austin K. show their strength during the tug-o-war contest. During Spirit Week lunch games, they easily defeated the seniors.
