

By One Thing Left. Following the Baccalaureate service, the Junior Marshals and graduating seniors line up and pose for group pictures. Having the service at St. John's Episcopal Church was a break in tradition, the smaller setting provided a more intimate ceremony for the small graduating class.

1. Waiting impatiently for the start of the service, Zelick flashes an anxious smile "backstage." 2. Brittany, after receiving a sneak peek of the excitement that graduation holds, exits the church along with her classmates and heads on to the reception. 3. Levi, Sarah Grier, and Mason provide the musical accompaniment for the traditional song, "On Eagles' Wings," for the congregation and graduates to sing. 4. Thanks to the inconvenient weather, Logan, Sidney, Corey, and the rest of the Baccalaureate participants line up and wait to enter the church from the Parish Hall. 5. Joseph, Vicky, Zach, and Sarah listen reverently to the sermon given by Dr. McCants to honor and guide the graduating class. 6. After being accosted by an unfortunate smell, Taylor and Anna Grey cover their mouths and hold back uncomfortable giggles. 7. Codie and Blake get a little emotional when the beginning strands of "Pomp and Circumstance" play, signaling the start of the service. 8. Joseph fills his plate with appetizing food during the reception. 9. Dr. Coleman briefly runs through the service order with the participating pastors and Junior Marshals.
