

Codie Elizabeth-Jean Revis

Eighteen years ago God blessed us with a beautiful Christmas angel who brought so much love, joy, and happiness to our family. Today you continue to bless and enrich our lives with your "blonde moments," laughter, and love. We are so proud of the person you have become and all of your accomplishments. Thank you for being an honest and trustworthy daughter who has admirable goals and understands the "higher road."

Thank you for loving us as much as we love you. As you go off to college, we will continue to pray for God's protection, His divine guidance, and abundant blessings upon your life.

Remember to always demonstrate the Fruit of the Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, and self control. Most importantly, give God the praise and honor He deserves.

As you begin to face new challenges, always know you have our love and support! You have wanted to be a teacher since the first grade, and we have no doubt you will be a wonderful and energetic educator.

May all your dreams come true!
We love you, Mama, Daddy, and Eric.

For I know the plans I have for you declares the Lord, plans to prosper you and not harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.

Jeremiah 29:11
