

SUMMER

For most students, SUMMER means a change in the day-to-day routine, sleeping in, and no more dread of doing homework, studying for tests, and carrying out projects ideas. It means no more collared shirts and lunch boxes. It means wearing bathing suits and flip flops, attending camps, and taking fun-filled vacation trips with family and friends. It means being "carefree!"

