

The often dreaded start of another school year quickly lends itself to a time of physical, mental, and social growth and even some FUN along the way! It's the beginning or continuation of life as an Eagle. We embrace the year and accept any changes that we encounter just as the tree leaves change to golden colors and the cooler temperatures appear.

