

1.

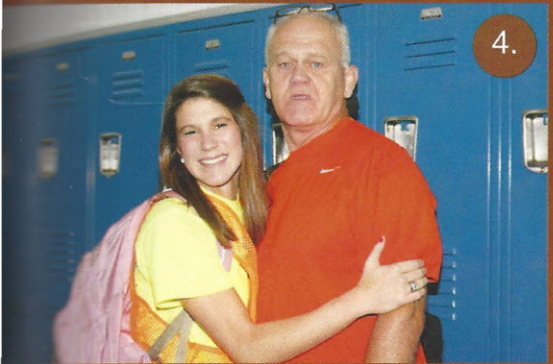

2.

3.

1. The second graders make the scene in their Blast to the Past outfits. 2. Lauren Elder and Mason Adams hug in the hall on Camo Day. 3. Josh Ellisor focuses hard in Doc's class. 4. Carson Justice and Coach Pitt take a minute for a picture on Neon Day. 5. Abby Lewis and Brantley Caulder play on the playground equipment in their blue and gold cheer outfits.

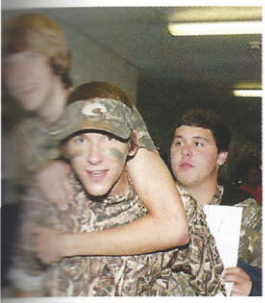

4.

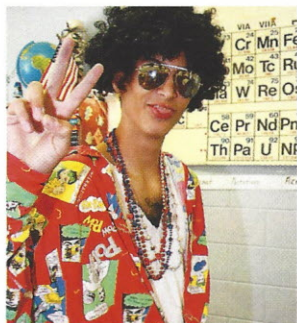

5.

CREATE A THEME FOR A DAY FOR NEXT YEAR'S HOMECOMING WEEK.

- PJ Day - Bailey Taylor
- Divergent Day - Hannah Silvia
- inanimate Object Day - Cassie Rae Cantrell
- Animal Day and Age Swap Day - Mitchell Gibbons
- Opposite Gender Day - Matt Taylor
- Pirate Day - Jordan Parris
- Disney Day - Megan Simpson
- Thug Day - Jacob Steele
- Glow in the Dark Day and Superhero Day - Perry Anne Robinson
- Impersonation Day - Madison Wade
- Dress like a Teacher Day - Grace Wilder
- Nerd Day - Nancy Blair Gonzalez
- Tourist Day - Rebecca Robertson
- Fashion Disaster Day - Jaycie Johnson

Heavy Load. Gunnar Swinley gives Rob O'Connor piggy back ride as Elijah follows behind. Without fail, Spirit Week always brought out the most unbridled behavior in a number of students.

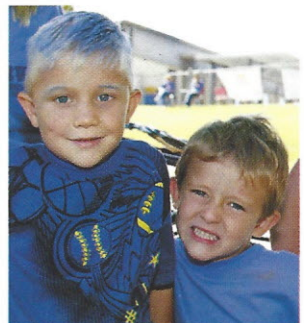

Peace Out! Senior Hampton Caughman goes totally retro while rocking an afro, Hawaiian shirt, Ray Bans, and chest hair. His creative Blast from the Past attire was a favorite among students.

Rocking Retro. The first graders model their old timey outfits on Blast from the Past Day. They not only looked spiffy but also enjoyed posing for the camera.

Peek a Boo! Jack Johnson and Mary Margaret Swearingen hide behind a tree on the playground during recess. These two youngsters just couldn't hide their Eagle Spirit, though!

Just Cheesing. Cole Elder and Dylan Albert hang out on the monkey bars during recess on Spirit Day. Cole showed his great support for the Eagles by dyeing his hair and eyebrows BLUE.