

Grandparents Day

Priceless Moments of Joy

Gather Around. Both sets of grandparents huddle around to see what Landon Caulder is doing. Many family members and grand-friends were happy to share this special time.

Precious Moments. Haley Autry and her grandmother share a special moment together at the Grandparents Day Program. Many grandparents came to hear them sing and see the crafts they made.

Grandparents Day is a day filled with fun activities for the students and their grandparents and/or special relatives and friends. Students invite them to come to RWA for a time of reading, music, snacks, and sharing what they are learning at school. It is quality time with Grandma, Grandpa, and others, as well as a time to visit the classrooms and meet the student's friends and teachers. This is a small way students in the local school show their grandparents how much they appreciate and love them.

1.

2.

4.

1. Third graders Kiff Nicholas and Maggie Hughes show off their grandparent stories posted on their classroom. 2. First graders do activities with grandparents. 3. Mrs. Schwartz with her students and grandparents. 4. Pre-K kindergarten students put on a show for their grandparents. 5. Lewis and Addi Collins stand and enjoy a story read to them. 6. Bonds listens closely as one of the grandmothers gives help. 7. Montgomery radiates her big smile with both grandmothers.

5.

6.

