

Sarah Grier Thompson leads the Eagles as they march to the end zone. 2. Captains Sarah Coleman and Anna Grey Walters show their leadership throughout the season. 3. The cheerleaders get the crowd pumped for the Homecoming game. 4. At the senior pep assembly, Sarah Coleman and Samantha Blair work together to play musical chairs. 5. The Lady Eagles do one of their routines during half time.

"From every practice to every game, we all bonded incredibly, and every chance we got to laugh we did, but when it was game time we were ready to go."

-Sarah Grier Thompson, 12th

"Since the squad had more beginners and a new coach, we had to break down many barriers and conquer new things."

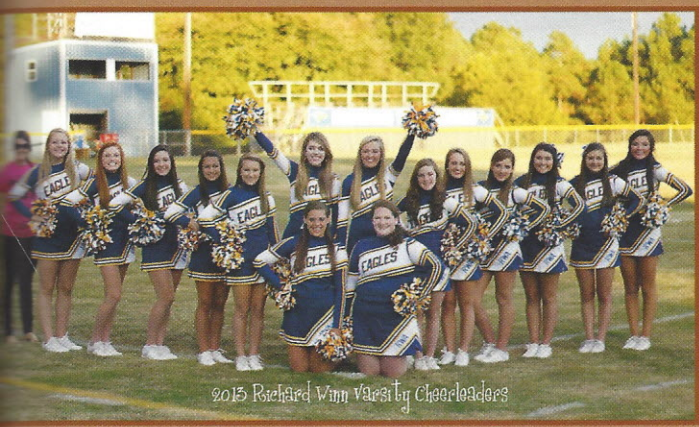

-Sarah Coleman, 12th

In so many ways! We grew in number, 15 of us! We came such a long way, everyone's skills improved so much. Most importantly we grew to become sisters and best friends, and as a senior, I couldn't have asked for a better season."

-Anna Grey Walters, 12th

How did the team grow over the season?

2015 Richard Winn Varsity Cheerleaders

The Next Generation. Marion Walker Coleman and Sarah Grier Thompson prepare the future Richard Winn cheerleaders. These two young ladies proved themselves to be great role models for the aspiring young cheerleaders.

Varsity Cheerleaders - Kneeling (L-R): Captains Anna Grey Walters and Sarah Coleman. Standing: Coach Meagan Emmell, Abby Brannon, Marion Walker Coleman, Nancy Gonzalez, Chloe Dawkins, Megan Simpson, Samantha Blair, Sarah Grier Thompson, Chrissy Caudill, Perry Anne Robinson, Grace Wilder, Addie Bostrom, Meg Cathcart, Becca Robertson