

What is the best part about winning back-to-back State Championships?

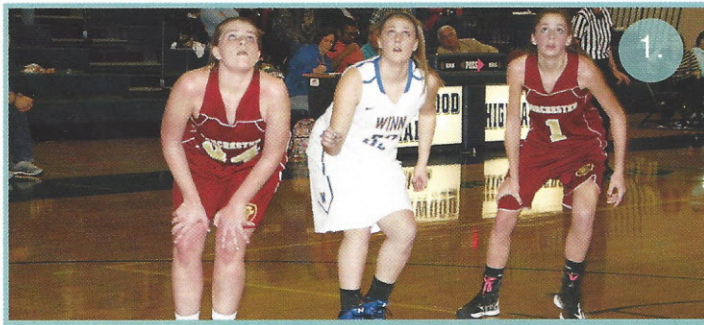

"The respect we gained from the other teams around the state."
-Jaycie Johnson, 10th

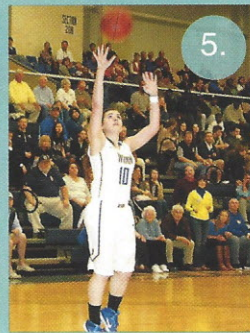

"That we did it together as a family and played for the ultimate champion."
-Emily Brigman, 11th

"Proving to people that we could. Winning it twice takes major sacrifices."
-Anna Cooke, 12th

1. Cassidy Branham sets to get the rebound. 2. Emily Brigman knocks down three pointer. 3. The Eagles pose with their State Championship trophy in two years. 4. Emily Brigman grabs the rebound. 5. Anna Cooke makes layup. 6. Alyssa Atkerson looks to make the pass the assist.

Visitor	RWA
1	28

	Them	Us
Hammond	39	52
Calhoun	23	48
Newberry	23	65
Whitmire HS	10	66
Thomas Sumter	12	53
Calhoun	16	47
Whitmire HS	6	61
Laurens Academy	8	62
Wardlaw	6	62
Union HS	34	60
BenLippen	19	57
Fairfield Central	36	43
Newberry	13	51
King Academy	23	47
Thomas Sumter	30	41

	Them	Us
Spartanburg Day	17	48
Spartanburg Christian	22	53
Union HS	43	38
Oakbrook Prep	25	67
Greenwood Christian	12	45
Spartanburg Day	37	57
Spartanburg Christian	21	52
Oakbrook Prep	18	62
Greenwood Christian	10	73
*Dorchester Academy	32	69
*Palmetto Christian	44	57
*Beaufort Academy	22	63
Thomas Sumter	33	37 OT

*Playoff Games
State Championship

SCISA AA State Champions. Seated(L-R): Kimmy Ables, Calee Thigpen. Kneeling: Alyssa Atkerson, Anna Cooke, Cassidy Branham. Standing: Bailey Taylor, Jessie Sticks, Jaycie Johnson, Carson Justice, Emily Brigman, and Coach Jason Haltiwanger. Not pictured: Coach Retta Taylor.