

Moonlight and Magnolias

All Smiles. Class sponsor Wendy McDonald and son Mac enjoy some shagging time on the dance floor. After months of planning and preparation for this event, Mrs. McDonald finally got to enjoy some special moments dancing with her son.

Line Dancin'. Pretty much everybody attending prom gets out on the dance floor during the line dance music. The Good Times DJ not only played the music requested but also provided strob lighting and video highlights of the event.

This Magic Moment. Madison and Sydney share a tender moment as they slow dance. Happy prom-goers abounded as they "danced the night away."

Steppin' Out. Paul Pendergrass and others take to the dance floor to "strut their stuff." From slow dances to line dances, the dance floor stayed packed for most of the evening.
