Leaders of the Pack. Junior Marshals Cassie Rae Cantrell and Madison Spang escort the seniors out of the church after Baccalaureate. The juniors worked extremely hard academically to qualify for this honor.

Making Memories. In kindergarten, these students shared crayons, now they share hymnals as they sing during their senior Baccalaureate service. From beginning to end, these soon-to-be graduates have always been there for each other.

Hymns of Praise. The students and congregation lift their voices to God in praise music. This solemn service and reception afterwards were well attended by family and friends of the graduates.
