

"You Should Have Seen It in Color."

Kindergartner Sarah Hughes starts off the school year by coloring a beautiful picture. This was a great way to warm up the students to a new year before starting the harder stuff.

New Beginning. Alexis Montgomery wears a big smile on the first day of school. Younger students are always especially excited to start a new school year.

Zoning In! The fifth grade class uses their best focus for the first class of the 2014-2015 school year. The class handled the transition from summer to school like professionals.

Intriguing. The 4th grade class listens intently as Mrs. Jean Woodle introduces her new students to the fourth grade. The students were eager to experience the differences and challenges the next level brings.

Really, Bruh? Seniors Emily Brigman, Jordan Parris, Matt Taylor, and Hunter Gibbons show obvious enthusiasm for their last year of high school. The "Bruh" pose, as it is commonly referred, made several appearances throughout the school year.
