

Masters of Disguise

Masters of Disguise. The second grade class takes a moment to smile for the camera in their Disney Day attire. The group was extremely enthusiastic all throughout Homecoming week.

"We've Got Spirit!"

"We've Got Spirit!" Rees Castles and Charlie Bonds have their hands full with all the spirit links their class acquired throughout the week. The elementary school is always very involved with the spirit link contest.

Work = Success

Work = Success. Alivia Martin works diligently to complete her work during class. She is constantly striving to be the best student she can be.

It's Always a Good Time!

It's Always a Good Time! Mrs. Ladd catches the second graders looking sharp on the way to lunch. The goofy class was always having a good time.

The Next American Idol

The Next American Idol. Roman Hawkins, Joseph Stillwell, and Jack Brannon give the audience a fantastic performance. The programs are a great way for parents to get involved with their children's education.

Class or Vacation?

Class or Vacation? Mrs. Atkerson's class tries hard to remain focused in spite of the excitement of Homecoming Week. Tacky Tourist Day was new and exciting for all ages.
