

Soy Cheeses! Sydney Boulware and McKenzie Wilson demonstrate their school spirit with big smiles and blue and gold. These girls were always festive and photo ready throughout the week.

Taylor Is Our King! Matt Taylor begins the traditional parade as King following his reception of the title. He greeted an adoring crowd after accepting the honor.

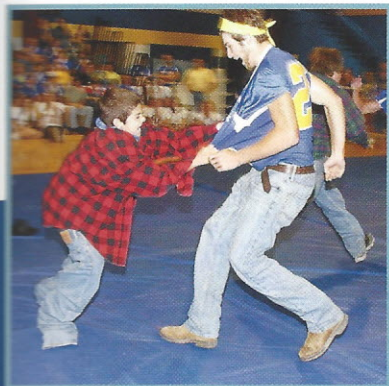

Seniors cause a deafening roar in order to demonstrate their school spirit. They gave it their all for their last homecoming pep rally yell.

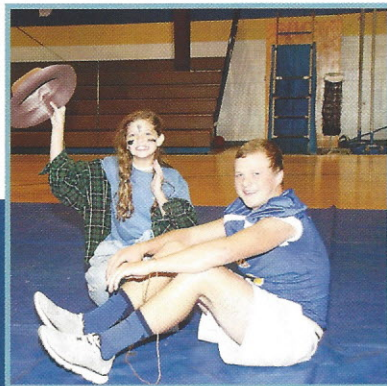

The sixth grade class makes a hardy attempt to out yell all of the other students.

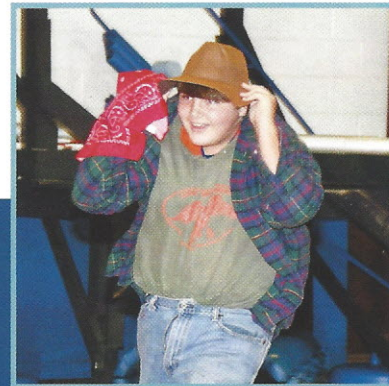

Fourth grader Emma Steed shows her Eagle spirit by blowing on a noise maker.

Grab Him! Will Carvalho makes a game-ending grab for Wyatt Adams. Adams managed to escape his grasp, prolonging the amusing game.

Tie 'Em Up. Emily O'Connor captures and binds Conrad Sharpe to win the pep rally game. She was happy to be victorious in the end.

Yee-Haw! Ryan Stillwell races to finish the pep rally game. His performance was particularly entertaining to the student body.