

One Pass, One Set, One Kill

Lead to Kill. Jaycie Johnson uses her height and force to slam the ball back to the opposing court. With her skills and athleticism, her hits and blocks were near lethal for the opposing teams.

Set and Ready. Madison Wade sets the ball to one of her teammates hoping to score. Not only did she consistently make great sets, but she was an effective hitter as well.

Spike It! Emily Brigman takes advantage of a beautiful set and spikes the ball with great force. During the season, she worked hard to improve the speed and precision of her hit, allowing her to end her volleyball career with a bang.

Bump That! Alyssa Atkerson passes the ball to her fellow setter. She was an essential part of the team in every area of the game.

A Grand Hit. Rebecca Robertson uses the perfectly positioned set to get a point. Throughout the season, she continued to grow her hitting skill, adding even more to the team's success.
