

One Play at a Time

As a pre-game ritual, the football team always bonds over a good meal.

During the game's halftime, the coaches use the break for a quick pep talk before the players return to the field.

The MS boys gear up to block as soon as the ball leaves the kicking tee.

Quarterback Zach Taylor has ample time to make a good pass, thanks to his determined offensive line.

Jake Clyburn rushes the ball in hopes of scoring a touchdown.

How did you get pumped up before a football game?

"I pray to God and listen to music."

- John Russell

"Smack myself 50 times in the face."

- Joey Sanchez

Game Time Will Carvalho goes for the touchdown with his fellow teammates working to clear his path. Carvalho was a dedicated member of the JV team, effective on both offense and defense.
