

A Little Time Off

A Monumental Photo

Steps of Greatness

A Monumental Photo. John Bond, Dru Caldwell, Marshall Gibbons, Ben Johns take a moment to pose a picture with Honest Abe. The group spent much of the Washington, DC touring monuments.

Steps of Greatness. The fifth, seventh, and eighth graders stop for a rest on the Jefferson Memorial steps. Though it was a large bunch, the group still managed to tour numerous monuments.

Eagle Eye View. The football and basketball State Champions eagerly await their recognition. Both teams achieved their ultimate goal during the football and basketball seasons.

A Winning Group. The State Champions smile for a snapshot after their recognition. It was a great honor to be afforded this opportunity.

Airbrush Artists. Mrs. Ladd's Art Appreciation class takes a picture with Dru Blair and his staff. The class had the chance to learn a neat airbrush technique from an extremely talented artist.

Touring the Town. Mrs. Berry's third graders excitedly pose for a photo during their field trip of downtown. The kids learned a lot about historic Fairfield County from a former teacher, Mrs. Lily Caldwell.

A Winning Group

Airbrush Artists

Touring the Town

Master Chef. Johnathan Bonds stops to show off how good he looks in an apron. Mrs. Retta Taylor's K-5 class always enjoys the annual cookie baking experience.

Master Chef

