

Guiltily as Charged. The senior class took a day out of school to visit the Federal Courthouse. The students made several comments on how nice and well-dressed they were, which they responded, "Guiltily as Charged."

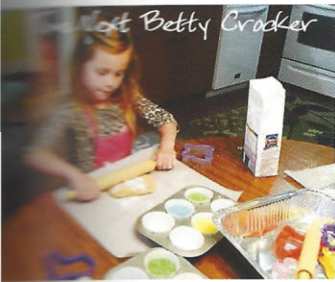

Junior Elijah Tucker and Blake ... taken intently while studying ... bracelet being passed ... The students learned many ... interesting facts on the trip.

Guiltily as Charged

On Trial

The Next Betty Crocker

The Next Betty Crocker.

Brantley Caulder works hard rolling dough to make cookies. The young baker was very involved during the activity which was hosted in her home.

Cookie Monsters

Cookie Monsters. Dylan Albert and Sarah Hughes proudly present the cookies they worked so hard to make. The duo spent much time decorating their cookies to perfection.

Strawberry Patch Kids. Mrs. Sherwood's first grade students take a break from picking strawberries to pose for a photo. The students definitely enjoyed this day off and likely sampled as many as they picked.

Strawberry Patch Kids

The Next Picasso. Junior Webb ... tests out his airbrush skills by ... painting his name. By the end of the ... he was airbrushing like he had ... been doing it for years.

Strawberry Fields

Strawberry Fields. Mrs.

Atkerson's second grade class takes a break from the heat for a quick picture. The group was certainly not short on strawberries when they returned.

