

Superman! Senior veteran player Blake Pauley dives for a line drive at first base. The awesome catch was nothing short of MLB worthy.

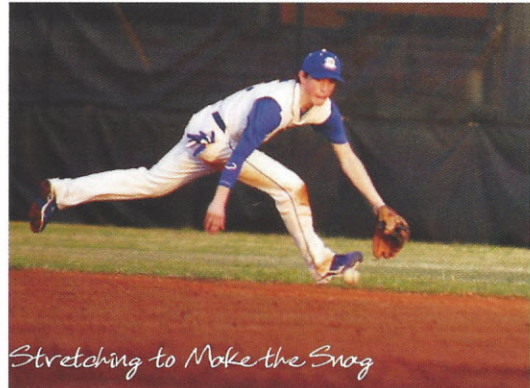

MINE! Jacob Steele makes a leaping catch against Ben Lippen. Jacob was a solid infielder for the Eagles when he wasn't on the mound pitching.

Submarine Cameron Cooper slings a heated sidearm pitch to the King Academy batter. Cam always came with his "A game," whether defensively at shortstop or on the mound, or offensively at the plate or on base.

Stretching to Make the Snag Senior second baseman Matt Taylor stays focused on the ground ball hit between 1st and 2nd base to make the play for the out. Matt's leadership and strong hitting and fielding skills will be hard to replace.

Aside from how baseball defines a "perfect game," what do you consider a perfect game?

"A game when you get better at something as a team, win or lose.

- Coker Gilbert, 11

"A cycle."

- John Coleman, 11
