

Just a Matter of Time

In Your Face! Pitching ace Bailey Taylor throws the heat toward the dish with intensity! Bailey, a year-round softball player, literally lives for the next softball competition.

You Got Robbed. Senior first baseman Emily Brigman leaps to snag a fly ball hit down first base line to rob the batter of a base hit. Emily's veteran skills as a tall, athletic first baseman and power hitter will be hard to replace next season.

Makin' Contact. Junior Laken Tanner sends the pitch to the outfield to get a stand up double. Laken's bat came alive at opportune times for the Lady Eagles.

Lookin' for the Sign
Senior catcher Jordan Parris looks toward the Lady Eagle dugout for Coach Kerrigan's pitch signs. Jordan's versatility allowed her to play infield positions early in the season, but she also adapted well to playing catcher for most of the season.

Teamwork! As one of the senior captains, Jordan Parris leads the huddle pep talk between innings to get her teammates pumped. Jordan's love of the sport showed in the way she played and encouraged her teammates.

Varsity Softball L-R: Emily Brigman, Bailey Taylor, Sally Costenbader, Cassidy Branham, Anna Connor, Kimmy Albert, Cali Swearingen, Head Coach Millie Lambert, Assistant Coach Kerrigan Kennington, Calee Thigpen, Megan Simpson, Jordan Parris, Laken Tanner, Alyssa Atkerson, Cassie McKeown, and Lauren Elder.