

A Storybook Good Time

Lift Your Voice in Song. Fourth graders Caroline Poole, portraying one of the von Trapp children, and Anna Grace Martin as Nancy in Oliver, join their classmates in singing one of many popular songs of these two classic musicals.

Lift Your Voice in Song

Beauty in the Making Third grader Natalie Wilkes plays the part of Cinderella, trapped as a servant to her wicked step-mother. Thankfully, the story has a "happily every after" ending.

Beauty in the Making

Fairy Tale Ending

Habit Forming. Several fifth grade girls are featured as nun "sisters" to sing one of many Sound of Music songs as their portion of the program.

Habit Forming

Fairy Tale Ending. Cinderella, AKA Felicity Franseen, goes to the ball with the help of her animal friends where she meets and falls in love with a handsome prince.

Maria. Elena Frick, in her sweet, soft voice, solos "The Hills Are Alive" as she portrays the main character in the Sound of Music.

Magical Mice. The first grade "mice" sing about helping Cinderella get to the Ball and assist in transforming her gown.

Pick-a-Pocket or Two. The Artful Dodger is played by fifth grader Wyatt Raley. The students sang "Consider Yourself" as they "welcomed" Oliver to their group.

Pick-a-Pocket or Two

