

One for the Record Books

The Year of the Eagle! RWA athletes dominated in 8-man football and A girls' basketball to capture two state titles and make this school year even more memorable!

Remembering Ally! Jessie Stidham is flanked by Gregg and LeAnn Douglass as the newest recipient of the coveted Ally Douglass Award & Scholarship.

Volleyball (L-R) MS: Most Improved-McKenzie Wilson, MS Eagle-Caleigh Caldwell; Varsity: MV Defensive, All Region-Alyssa Atkerson, MIP-Sally Costenbader, co-Eagle & captain-Emily Brigman; MV Offensive, All Region, All Star, All State-Jaycie Johnson; co-Eagle & captain-Cassidy Branham. Not Pictured: All Region, All Star, All State-Marion Walker Coleman

Girls' Basketball (L-R) MS: Most Improved-Taylor Spires, Eagle-Riley Simpson; Varsity: Eagle, All Region, All Star, All State-Emily Brigman; Most Outstanding, Region & State Player of the Year, All Star, All State-Jaycie Johnson; Most Improved, Most Valuable, All Region, SCISA-GISA All Star, All State-Jessie Stidham; Not Pictured: All Region-Bailey Taylor, All Region, All State, All Star- Alyssa Atkerson

Softball (L-R) MS: Eagle-Emma Castles, Most Improved-Jennifer Haney; Varsity: Eagle-Sally Costenbader, Slugger, All Region, All Star, All State-Alyssa Atkerson; Most Improved, All Region-Anna Connor; Best Defensive, All Region-Jordan Parris; Most Valuable, Region Player of the Year, All Star, All State-Bailey Taylor

Put a Ring on It! The baker's dozen varsity basketball players show off their new state championship rings. This was the third ring earned by Coach Haltiwanger and six of his players.