

"It's a Bird! It's a Plane! It's John Russell!"
John Russell sports a cape and a look of joy as he runs for a win. His attire certainly suggested that he was having a great time!

Hopping Along!
Graedyn Bartell and Dru Caldwell sport winning smiles as they play Leap Frog. This was a fun activity for all ages!

Footwork! A group of fifth graders uses their toes to collect marbles. This activity required fancy footwork to collect the most marbles and created many laughs.

"Good 'til the Last Drop" Natalie Wilkes squeezes the water out of the infamous yellow sponge in order to score a win for her team. This game was one of many requiring a yellow sponge.

Wet Time! Bella Westall and Illeanna Derrick take a moment to dry off after all of the water activities. This adorable duo shared many laughs in addition to a single towel.

Stay Steady! Marshal Gibbons wears a look of shock as Mckenzie Wilson tries to get all of the water from the sponge into the bottle. This game was the cause of many wet shirts throughout the day.

"SpongeBonds!" Travis Bonds runs for the goal as his team cheers behind him. This game was a great way to build team skills.