

All Smiles. Catherine Mann and Mrs. McDonald wear big smiles as Catherine enters the church for the Baccalaureate service. It was a happy moment for Catherine as a student and Mrs. McDonald as a parent.

Time for Goodbye Jordan Parris and Mrs. Amella Ellison share a warm embrace after the Baccalaureate ceremony. Mrs. Ellison is certainly considered one of the favorite teachers among the students.

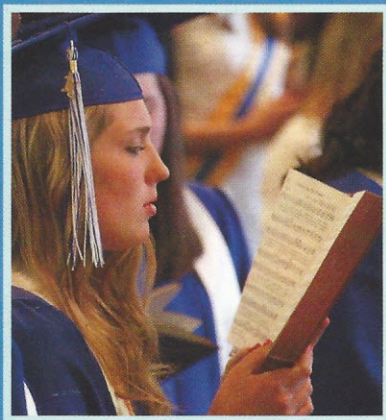

Madison Spang smiles with joy prior to the Baccalaureate service.

Emily Brigman and Cassie Rae Cantrell hold a serious expression as Dr. McCants delivers a speech.

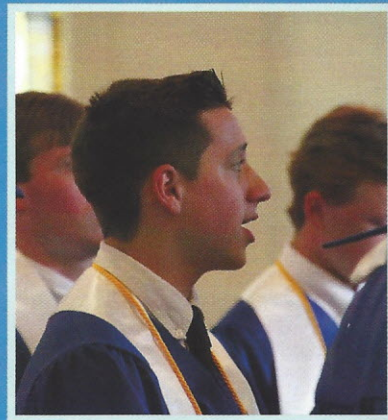

A Journey's Destination
Creighton Ellison has an expression of reminiscence for her final time with her class. Creighton was not able to make it to graduation because of an important rodeo event making this occasion extra special for her.

Make a Joyful Noise Cassidy Branham follows along with the lyrics to a hymn during Baccalaureate. This hymn was one of many beautiful songs sung at the service.

Marching Marshals. Perry Anne Robinson and John Sandifer lead the line of seniors and other marshals into the church. These two were a couple of fourteen juniors eligible to be marshals.

"On Eagles' Wings." Hunter Gibbons sings the traditional song sung at Baccalaureate. The sweet song was lead by teacher Rachel Peake.