

Is This the End?

Dr. McCants delivers a moving sermon at the Baccalaureate service. Though he retired as a teacher last year, Dr. McCants remains an important member of the Richard Winn family.

Hannah Silvia and her older brother Brent take time for a photo together. This was an emotional time for the family as Hannah is the last sibling to leave the "nest."

Megan Simpson and Matt Taylor stop for a picture after the service. This was just one of many proud Kodak moments they shared over the year.

Junior Marshals Jacob Steele and Addie Bostrom give it their all while singing a hymn at Baccalaureate. The two worked very hard academically to be awarded this honor.
