

This is Our Time

Bittersweet Goodbyes.

Catherine Mann and ELA teacher Danielle Owens pose for a quick snapshot before the graduation ceremony. Both were extremely excited to take part in the event.

A Talk of Time

Hannah Silvia delivers her valedictory speech to the students, faculty, family, and friends. Her speech centered on time, a concept that moved everyone listening.

Graduate or Rodeo Queen?

Creighton Ellison takes a ride on her horse while dressed in her graduation gown. Creighton was not able to attend graduation, but she rode in the opening ceremony of her last HS rodeo dressed to celebrate this milestone event.

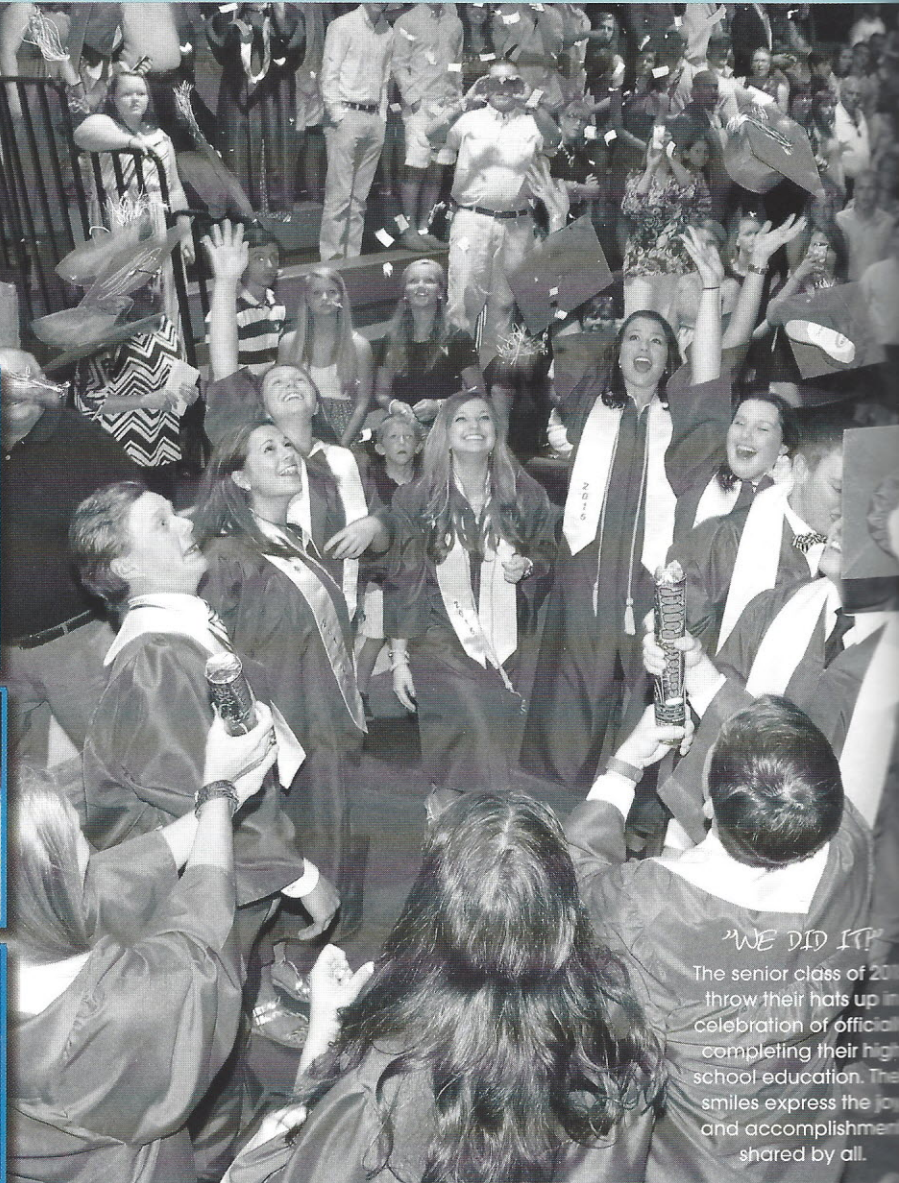

"Let's Shake on It!"

Cameron Cooper and Dr. Coleman exchange a handshake while Cameron receives his diploma. This moment is one that no one soon forgets.

It Runs in the Family.

Blake Pauley heads to receive his diploma from step mom and RW alumna, Emily Pauley. Many of the graduating seniors chose to receive their diplomas from alumni family members.

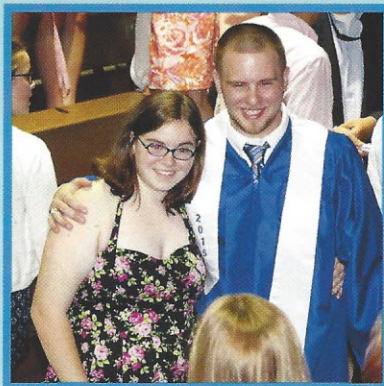

"WE DID IT!"

The senior class of 2015 throw their hats up in celebration of official completion of their high school education. The smiles express the joy and accomplishment shared by all.

Brotherly Love. Hunter Gibbons and brother Logan Gibbons stop for a photo after Hunter receives his diploma. This was a proud moment for both guys.

Family Photo! Mac McDonald and younger sister Alex embrace for a picture after the graduation ceremony. Mac and Alex are the children of HS teacher and alumna Wendy McDonald.

Putting the Pomp in Circumstance. Wyatt Adams wears a smile as he marches to his seat for the graduation ceremony. He wore this same expression as he enjoyed the bittersweet events that took place.