

Chapel

RWA includes weekly chapel for the first time

Giving Advice Jonathan Lewis delivers his senior speech on responsibility. Jonathan shared a valuable lesson with the audience, based on some personal experiences of working on his family's farm.

Birthdays Dr. Selby invites the birthday celebrants on stage to be recognized and serenaded. This gesture makes their day even more special.

Jam Out Dr. Selby leads the pre-schoolers in song during Chapel. The youngsters participated in their own chapel service, separate from the older kids on Tuesday mornings.

Raise Your Voice The student body joins together to sing the RWA fight song, The Alma Mater and the Lord's Prayer were also featured weekly during the chapel service.

All Ears Charlotte Lewis, Kate Baker, and Hayden Branham listen intently to the lesson taught to them during chapel. This bright and happy faces always made an early morning school day much more pleasant!

A Singing Selby Dr. Selby graces the student body with his musical talents, leading the group in harmony. Music was just one of the many enjoyable features of Chapel each week.
