

Engaged The graduates intently listen as Dr. Clyde McCants delivers a sermon of advice for the group. It was a truly special lesson because Dr. McCants taught most of the senior class.

One Final Touch A few of the senior girls make final touches to their appearance before attending the Baccalaureate service. These ladies enjoyed this final experience before graduating together.

On Eagles' Wings Jonathan Lewis and Rob O'Connor join in on the singing at the church service. "On Eagles' Wings" has traditionally been sung at all special RWA events.

Mother Hen Mrs. Wendy McDonald guides Hunter Glisson's entrance to the service. Mrs. McDonald served as a mother figure to the senior class since 2013.

Excitement A group of seniors enjoy a light conversation as they anticipate Baccalaureate. Most of this group have been friends for over ten years.

A Word of Prayer Jacob Steele and Nic Stillwell bow their heads as Dr. Clyde McCants delivers the closing prayer. Dr. McCants always makes Baccalaureate special for our graduates.

A Family of Alumni Candace, Anna Grey, and Boyce Walters take a break from chatting for a picture. The Walters trio will soon all be alumni of RWA.
